And when i come home late you don't complain or call so as a consequence i don't go out at all my friends are frightened they don't know what's going on they think you put a spell on me and now my mind is gone oh no, please not that again love rears up its ugly head

Oh love is not so bad they say F D# D7 C7 G7
but you never know where love is gonna go D7 D7 C7 G7
Does anybody really know?

I'm standing at the altar as they play the wedding march i'm in a black tuxedo with my collar full of starch she looks as lovely as she's ever gonna get i wake up from this nightmare in a pool of sweat

What you gonna do what you gonna do when it comes and gets you?
